

SERVING JESUS WITH HUMILITY AND KINDNESS

SAVANNAH DEANERY CCW WELCOME

Dear Sisters and Friends of Council,

I'd like personally to welcome you to the 79th convention of the Savannah Dioceses Council of Catholic Women and to beautiful Richmond Hill and Savannah, Ga.

It is an exciting time for the Council of Catholic Women as we continue to grow and adapt, remaining always adaptable, motivated responsive to the relevant changes in our parishes, community and global needs. Council of Catholic women gives all catholic women the opportunity to work, learn and socialize by following the footsteps of Jesus with the help of our beloved Mary, Patroness of the Council of Catholic Women. We will continue to bring inspired people together in our meetings and especially at convention to ensure that we remain on the cutting edge.

You will have inspiring speakers, knowledgeable workshops and a chance to meet ladies from across Georgia who have the same love to serve Jesus in their daily lives. You will receive wonderful ideas from them and go home filled with the Holy Spirit to make your councils even better. The NCCW website is a huge source of information and I encourage everyone to join it. We are only heading up and it is an exciting time for us!

Before I close I'd like to thank each of you for taking your time to attend this convention and bringing your expertise to our gathering. You, the Council of Catholic Women have the leaders, the vision, the knowledge, the wherewithal and the experience to help bring us into the future. You are truly our greatest asset today and tomorrow. We could not accomplish what we do without your support and leadership. Throughout this convention, I ask you to stay engaged and help us shape the future of the Council of Catholic Women.

My personal respect and thanks goes out to all of you.

Gayle Valbuena, President
