Topic

“Amazing Women in My Life”

The women who have gone before us and the women who stand beside us have all contributed to the women of faith and of love we have become. This will be an evening of sharing their memory and their presence, ending with the Woman called Blessed by All Ages, the Mother of Jesus and of each one of us.

Saturday ~

8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. (Confession (3:45 p.m.) and Mass (5:00 p.m.) attendance is optional.

Main Topic

SISTER CHRIS'S ACCOMMODATIONS

Shawn Stevens, one of the secretaries at Sacred Heart, will find a home for Sister Chris for Friday night.

Sacred Heart's Preparations

*Sacred Heart will handle the microphone, podium, food, chairs and tables set up. Sister Chris prefers chairs down the center. A few tables can be lined up around the perimeter in single rows for attendees who may need them. Approximately 140 chairs will be needed. *Note: * Food will be prepared by Sacred Heart on Saturday; however dinner Friday and Saturday's breakfast will be on your own. Tell registrants.*

Friday: Time: 6:00 – 8:30 p.m. "The Amazing Women in My Life": Participants are invited to bring a photo and/or a memento of one significant woman in her life. *Friday night attendance is optional if you can't stay overnight, but do come Saturday. We need a count of how many are coming Friday and a count of how many are attending Saturday.

Saturday: Time: 8:30 a.m. (sign in) to 3:00 p.m. "Beloved of God" (main session)

Confession (3:45 p.m.) and Mass (5:00 p.m.) attendance is optional.

Deanery Presidents' Responsibilities

- With the help of members: forward publicity across the deanery and other non-affiliated local parishes
- Submit your numbers/counts of those attending to SDCCW Spirituality Chair, Eleanor Willingham preferably by email at settingfoundations@gmail.com by Feb 2. (Phone evenings: 706-737-8616 or 706-414-4404) People can still register up to Feb. 8.
- Bring two copies of the form with the list of attendees with you to the retreat. Give one to the checkers at the door for check in, and give the other one to Eleanor. Always keep a copy for yourself.
- Get bulletin announcements published in the bulletin each month: Submit October through February
- Place the main flyer insert in the bulletin by January.
- Ask priests to announce the retreat from the pulpit each month.
- Write the contact names and phone numbers of the deanery president and another council woman on the church bulletin announcements
- All deanery/affiliate councils are to do their best at recruiting individuals to start signing up and collecting donations early. The money and registration form is to be given to the Deanery President who will forward it to the SDCCW treasurer. Give reminder calls if necessary. Bring vans/and or bus loads. The Deanery President is to send the total amount of money collected along with all copies of the lists of people who paid and signed up to attend in preferably one or two checks as necessary to the diocesan treasurer. Treasurer: Geraldine Klock 112 Crystal Drive Rincon, GA 31326 gklock@aol.com 912-596-9412 (cell) Be sure to put your contact information.

Volunteers Needed: Volunteers are needed to handle check-ins for Friday and/or Saturday at the door.

To cover cost for food, and other expenses, and for attending one or both days, the recommended donation is $15/person. Last minute individuals can still pay at the door, but most should pay in advance for food preparation and set up purposes.

Hotel Accommodations Recommended hotels for those coming Friday.

Contact ycarr@burnsworldtravel.com for hotel bookings if assistance is wanted.
